PREVIOUSLY

Peter Parker accidentally stumbled upon arch-nemesis Mysterio's lair and discovered that the villain was manipulating a dimensional portal. Spider-Man and Mysterio struggled and the wall-crawler was accidentally transported to another universe -- one with a Spider-Man all its own!

Thats right! Now, there are two Spider-Men!

my discovery. My

It's
mine!!

Spider-
Man...Spider-
Man...

Get a hold
of yourself, Mysterio.

If you were a pretty well-known super hero who had put just a lot of effort and thought and time in concealing your secret identity because you feared for the safety of your loved ones, but all of a sudden found yourself in a situation where suddenly your real name seems fairly well established, and your mask was off, and then you ran into a teenage African American version of your, well, self and now you were talking to a, well frankly, much cooler version of the Nick Fury that you were used to talking to and you were pretty sure, after you had some time to think it over, that you may have either A: had a complete psychotic break, B: are being tricked by a former movie stuntman turned super villain into thinking this is all real, or C: have accidentally transported to an alternate dimension that slightly resembles the one you're from if not for the gigantic differences....what would you do?

Oh,
that old
nugget...

And did I mention that
part where everyone
seems to know Peter Parker is Spider-
Man?

(Which I
still neither
confirm or deny...)

Where am
I and who was
that kid?

Come
with me...

The universe
is giving me two
Spider-Men to kill
for the price
of one.

Well, all right.
